Car makers look for revival of spring surge.

Hixburg

Hixburg, April 14.- Mrs. Jack Kenneth Marshall. of Appomattox, honored Miss Barbara Ann Wooldridge with a miscellaneous shower on Friday evening in Mrs. Marshall's home. Barbara Ann received many beautiful and useful presents, which she can use when housekeeping in Blacksburg next winter.

Mrs. Alfred Harwood, Sr., served punch. Mrs. John Wilson and Mrs. William Hix, of Hixburg, were present.

The marriage of Barbara Ann and John Curtis Caldwell, Jr. will take place next Saturday evening, at 8:00, in the Evergreen Baptist Church. Both Barbara and "Jack" plan to take a course at V. P. I.

Whatever kind of flu this is that is going around, it is certainly a knock-out. On Thursday night, Mr. Willie Hix became ill. Two shots on Friday failed to calm him down until Saturday night. Although he is in bed much of the time, he is somewhat better.

This freak weather, 91° during the week, then down to 32° on Sunday and Sunday night, is enough to give people flu. To say nothing of arthritis. Dr. Lukin claimed that arthritis was worse in the spring than in the winter.

An architect filled his appointment with the members of Walker's Presbyterian Church at Hixburg on Thursday A .M. They plan to build two Sunday School rooms on to the church.
